

Circle the correct answer. You can have more than one answer.

1. The smallest unit of life?
a. particle b. atom c. cell d. matter
2. Cells are very small in size. To see a cell, we use a
a. binocular b. stethoscope c. microscope
3. Cells that are made up of only one cell are call
a. unicellular organisms b. single celled organisms c. onecellular organisms

True or False. Write T if true. If false, circle the word that makes the sentence wrong and write the correct word.

- _____ 1. Some parts of our body consist of cells.
- _____ 2. Unlike living things, non-living things are not made of cells.
- _____ 3. All living things are made up of a lot of cells.
- _____ 4. All living things are made up of cells.
- _____ 5. A table is made up of live cells.

Fill in the blank.

1. Give 2 examples of unicellular organisms. _____
2. Give 2 examples of multicellular organisms. _____
3. Give 2 examples of things that are not made up of cells.

Give the similarity and difference of an algae, snake and a paramecium

Similarity: _____

Difference: _____