1. When we eat drink hot soup what sense organs are used?
   a. smell and taste
   b. nose and tongue
   c. smell, taste, touch
   d. nose, tongue, skin

2. Which part of the tongue sends messages to the brain to tell us how the food tastes.
   a. little bumps
   b. taste buds
   c. papillae
   d. inner layer of tongue

3. The tongue is a _______
   a. bone
   b. body organ
   c. muscle
   d. muscle and body organ

4. The tongue is a muscle covered with little bumps called
   a. little bumps
   b. papillae
   c. dots
   d. taste buds

5. The little bumps contain _______.
   a. little bumps
   b. papillae
   c. dots
   d. taste buds

6. The part of our nose that contains structures that send message to our brain to tell us what we are smelling
   a. nostrils
   b. hair
   c. nasal chamber
   d. nose

7. Scents carried by tiny particles enter our nose through this.
   a. nostrils
   b. nose hair
   c. nasal chamber
   d. nasal cavity
8. We cannot breathe when we have colds because
   a. our nose is blocked     c. our nose is swollen
   b. our nose is dirty       d. our nose is squeezed

9. We can tell the soup is hot through our sense of
   a. taste                  c. smell
   b. sight                  d. touch

10. What body parts are special partners. They work together very well.
    a. eye and ear            c. skin and eye
    b. nose and tongue        d. tongue and skin

11. The following helps us take care of our tongue except
    a. Scrape your tongue gently to remove the white layer on the tongue, which has a lot of germs.
    b. Rinse your mouth frequently.
    c. Exercise your tongue by rolling it in and out.

12. The following helps us take care of our nose except
    a. Pick your nose regularly.
    b. Use a soft cloth when cleaning your nose.
    c. Do not rub your nose too hard.
Answer Key:

1. D
2. B
3. D
4. B
5. D
6. C
7. A
8. A
9. D
10. B
11. C
12. A